Arrows give their 'best ever' display

THE Red Arrows returned to Lyme Regis last week for what has been described as their "best and longest" display in the town.

After the RAF's crack aerobatic team announced that it would have to charge for its future displays in Lyme Regis, there were concerns that the Arrows would not be making an appearance this year.

The Arrows usually appear in Lyme as the highlight of Lifeboat Week, but the RNLI Guild said it was unable to commit the necessary £12,000 to secure a display from its charity funds. Lifeboat Week also clashed with the pilot's period of annual leave.

But thanks to a successful fundraising campaign launched by the View From Lyme Regis newspaper – spearheaded by editor and managing director Philip Evans, who first brought the RAF team to the town in the 1970s – the Arrows were able to make a triumphant return on Thursday, continuing their 40 year-plus relationship with the town.

The fundraising campaign was supported by a significant donation from one local company and by the launching of the Lyme Regis Red Arrows 100 Club, in which 100 members pay £100 towards the cost of the display.

To celebrate their return, Thursday was named Red Letter Day and a whole programme of Red Arrows-theme events were held on the seafront,

Tiles Explained

Choosing tiles can seem difficult, with so many different materials sizes, patterns and finishes available.

Ask the Tile Expert, Charlie

From the Tile and Stone Centre has put together some facts and tips to help you make a well informed choice for your home and outside your home.

Ceramic

Ceramic tiles are hard wearing, easy to lay and work well with underfloor heating. They can be used on both wall and floor and because they are waterproof are especially suited for wet rooms and bathrooms.

Ceramic tiles are easy to clean and maintain.

Porcelain

Porcelain is extremely hard wearing, making it ideal for busy areas of the home. Use them on both wall and floor and even outside. (Un glazed tiles should be protected with a sealer).

Charlie can advise on sealing and maintenance.

Natural Stone

Natural stone is both beautiful and extremely hard wearing. Hewn from the earth it is naturally hypoallergenic and makes an ideal choice for any floor in the home.

Marble is a very popular choice. It's easy to polish, can be honed and like wine improves with age. Once sealed it can be kept clean with a damp mop after vacuuming.

RETIRED Army Major Ian Marshal moved to Lyme Regis in 2012 with wife Annemarie. He is now a deputy launching authority, education volunteer and lifeboat visits officer for Lyme Regis lifeboat crew, currently celebrating Lyme Regis Lifeboat Week, and was recently appointed secretary of the local branch of the Royal British Legion.

The and Annemarie have two grown up daughters and a grandson.

● WHERE are you originally from and what made you decide to move to Lyme Regis?

Having been a service child I spent much of my early years abroad in Malaya and Cyprus but returned to the UK in the early 1960s to continue my secondary education in and around Newbury in Berkshire. However, before moving to Lyme Regis in 2012 we lived near Andover in Hampshire. We moved to Lyme on a whim really! We felt we had another move in us and just felt we wanted somewhere where we could go walking without getting into a car and if possible have a sea view. Well, we are fortunate that we have both!

● DID you always want a career in the Army?

No, originally I wanted to be a pilot in the RAF but was not medically fit enough for flying duties, although my medical condition did not preclude a career in commercial flying. However, on balance I chose a career in the Army much to my father's disgust having been a decorated wartime bomber pilot!

● TELL us a little about your career in the Army...

I was commissioned into the Royal Army Ordnance Corps in 1969 and served continually for 33 years including 10 years in the Royal Logistic Corps. Although I was a trained Bomb Disposal Officer, I spent most of my career as an equipment support manager and served in Germany, Northern Ireland, Hong Kong and Belize in Central America. Belize was the most fascinating role as I was the logistic adviser to both the Government of Belize's Ministry of National Security and the Commander of the Belize Defense Force.

● WHAT did you do after this?

I retired from the Army in 2001 and worked in London for the British Quality Foundation for three years, after which I returned to working as a consultant in the Defence Logistic Organisation. My last six years were spent as a continuous improvement specialist at the Atomic Weapons Establishment near Reading

● WHAT does your role with the RNLI entail?

I currently fulfil a number of roles with the RNLI.

● WHY did you want to get involved with the charity?

Although I have never been a sailor I have done a lot of scuba diving in my earlier years so have always had a healthy respect for the sea. As such I have been an RNLI shoreline member for a number of years and held our brave lifeboat crews and lifeguards in the highest regards. Our move to Lyme Regis provided the opportunity to become actively engaged with the RNLI.

● YOU'RE also a member of the Royal British Legion branch - why is it important to you to support this charity?

Having served in the Armed Forces one never really leaves! By becoming involved with Royal British Legion helps in maintaining the comrade spirit and in some small way helping those less fortunate than oneself.

● ARE you involved with any other local organisations?

The RNLI and the Royal British Legion take up most of my volunteering time but we support a number of other local organisations and societies as and when we can such as the Marine Theatre.

● WHAT do you enjoy doing in your spare time?

When time permits Annemarie and I have taken up sit-on-top kayaking and just pray every time we go out we do not have to call upon the services of the lifeboat! I guess we'd never live that one down. We also take time to walk around the local area taking in all those wonderful views of the Jurassic Coast has to offer. I am also a tour guide for Palmers Brewery in Bridport which is a fascinating experience.

● WHAT do you like about living in Lyme Regis?

Lyme Regis really is a delightful town with lovely people all of whom have made us most welcome in the short time we have been in residence. We enjoy the bustle of summer listening to the children's laughter and spending time on the beach with Hugo our grandson when we have him to stay. We also love the winter time with all the storms and wonder at the power of the sea which can change from friend to foe so quickly.

● WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Professor Brian Cox because I'm sure if he had been one of my university lecturers I'd be a theoretical physicist as well. Tim Peake, as he has been such an inspiration to youngsters by promoting science, technology, engineering and mathematics; and Sir William Hillary, the founder of the RNLI and a man of immense vision and dogged determination.

Lyme listed among highest priced seaside resorts in UK

LYME Regis has been listed among the 10 seaside towns in the UK with the highest property prices.

Lyme was placed fourth in the list printed in the Western Morning News last week, with an average property price of £402,634 according to property website Zoopla.

Lyme was placed above neighbouring towns Sidmouth, in East Devon, with an average property price of £352,896, and Swanage in Dorset priced at £330,901.

Salcombe in Devon took the number one spot as most expensive seaside resort with an average property price of £598,230 while other towns to be listed included Aldeburgh (£490,182) and Southwold (£434,618) in Suffolk, Brighton in Sussex (£368,782), North Berwick in Scotland (£364,306), Port Isaac in Cornwall (£356,962) - where hit television show "Doc Martin" starring Martin Clunes was filmed - and Woolacombe in Devon (£347,507).

(£364,306), Port Isaac in Cornwall (£356,962) - where hit television show "Doc Martin" starring Martin Clunes was filmed - and Woolacombe in Devon (£347,507).

House prices in Lyme Regis has been a hot topic of conversation in recent weeks. Several residents have taken to social media site Facebook to complain that prices are too expensive for local people to buy and that people from out of town are being housed in Lyme by West Dorset District Council ahead of those who already live here.

Lyme resident Matt Puddy, a regular commentator on local affairs, said: "Until town councils gain control over district councils - as far as allocation for social housing is concerned - Lyme Regis will continue to be swamped with residents that other towns and cities do not want.

"More and more housing is being handed to people with no connection to this town whatsoever. Moreover, many are moved here because of prior anti-social behaviour.

"It is a disgusting disgrace that many residents, myself included, who have family and who work in Lyme are unable to find affordable housing in the place where they grew up.

"This travesty and betrayal must end and it must end now."

Another resident described Lyme as a "dumping ground" for people from other areas, while some argued that not all those who have been housed in the town should be "tarred with the same brush".

The issue of affordable housing in Lyme Regis was raised at a recent town council meeting, when the council was asked to become a custodian trustee for the Community Land Trust, which recently received planning permission for 15 affordable rented properties off Timber Hill.

The role of custodian trustee is to hold the legal estate to the property and some councillors were concerned this would pose a financial risk to the council.

However, the Mayor, Councillor Owen Lovell, said: "Everyone wants affordable housing to rent in Lyme Regis and if you want it then we have to take the risks that come with it... This is something the town wants, I think it is something we should support."

Keith Jenkin of the Community Land Trust was asked how the group was progressing in ensuring the houses would be allocated to local people.

Mr Jenkin said "with great difficulty", but as the houses were not likely to be completed for 18 months he was hopeful that this issue could be resolved with the help of the district council.

Town, district and county councillor Daryl Turner, who said that affordable housing was a "priority" for the town, gave an update on West Dorset District Council's housing allocations policy, which states that applicants to its Dorset Home Choice housing list must be a resident in the West Dorset District Council or Weymouth & Portland Borough Council area for the last two years; work in the relevant local authority area or need to move to take up an offer of permanent employment; have family connections in the relevant local authority area; or need to move to the area to receive medical or other support.

However, Councillor Turner said that discussions had been held on the allocations policy for the Community Land Trust houses and that this would include houses for local people and for those previously deemed "adequately housed", which he said was "good news".

Ninety years of life in Lyme on display for Queen's birthday

AS part of the town's celebration of the Queen's 90th birthday, museum volunteers Ken Gollop and Winnie Donno have put together a selection from Lyme Regis Museum's large collection of local photos for the 1926-2016 exhibition, now at the Jubilee Pavilion.

"It is very difficult to select a few from such a large collection and in the end we chose a handful from each decade. We hope it will be of interest to residents old and new and perhaps bring back a few memories to the locals," said Mr Gollop (pictured above).

Hix Oyster & Fish House in Lister Gardens hosted a special Red Arrows breakfast and Red Arrows 100 Club members enjoyed a champagne reception in a marquee above By The Bay restaurant during the display.

Local organisations have also been fundraising throughout the week for Lyme Regis Community Week.

Despite the cloudy weather, the event attracted tens of thousands of people and the Red Arrows gave a full display, described as the "best and longest" seen in the town.

Collections on the night raised £5,500, which is thought to be a record total, and the money will be split with 50 per cent going towards the cost of next year's display and the rest being split between the organisations which took part in Community Week and helped with collecting – Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club, Lyme Regis Development Trust/Gig Club, Lyme Regis Musical Theatre, Lyme Regis Christmas Lights Committee, the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis and the Town Mill.

More than 60 people helped with collections on the evening, including a large group from the 1st Lym Valley Scouts, accompanied by parents, who were working towards their badges for service to the community.

A further donation of £1,500 will be made to the RNLI to acknowledge the lifeboat crew's long association with the Red Arrows in Lyme Regis.

elect of the Virgina Company.

This factual tale was weaved into this original take on "The Tempest" as part of the 20th anniversary celebrations of twinning between Lyme Regis and St George's in Bermuda - with several visitors from Bermuda attending on the final night - and each character gave an epilogue at the end adding further historical relevance.

Oddly enough, back in school they didn't teach us about the play's supposed links with Lyme. The real-life story of the former Mayor of Lyme Regis, Admiral Sir George Somers, who was shipwrecked on the mysterious isles of Bermuda in 1609 on his way to Jamestowne, Virginia, subsequently claiming it for the British Crown and inspiring Shakespeare's play, was something I learnt later in life.

It's a piece of Lyme's history that has largely gone untold, but that was put to rights last week as "The Tempest of Lyme" cleverly entwined the story of Sir George with the classic Shakespeare tale inspired by his endeavours.

Directed by the Marine's own Clemmie Reynolds and written by Lyme-born scriptwriter Andrew Rattenbury, "The Tempest of Lyme" started inside the theatre where the two stories were set before the cast and musicians led the audience outside, where the remainder of the play was performed open-air, using the theatre's seaside location to its full advantage.

I attended on the last night - luckily the weather held out for the whole week allowing the open-air production to go ahead as planned. Everyone who had been earlier in the week said I was in for a treat, and I could tell from the opening scene that this was going to be something really special.

Star of the show was Nicola Kathrens, following in the footsteps of Helen Mirren by turning Shakespeare's lead Prospero into the female Prospera. She commanded the stage almost entirely throughout; keeping the audience enthralled from the first to the last word, delivering the complicated Shakespearean script perfectly and adding a touch of humour as she came out of character for the segments following Sir George's story.

Prospera was one of several characters switched from male to female for the production, with the portrayal of Ariel, spirit of the island, surely being one of the biggest successes of the show. Six young girls - Lucy Ratcliff, Aurelia Welch, Sophie Thomas, Becky Varnell, Serena Ballacchino and Freya Hester - took on the role jointly, moving and speaking together to great effect.

Bramble Wallace as Prospera's innocent daughter Miranda, and Joe Urquhart as the charming Ferdinand were sweet in portraying the tale of young love, while Phil Christmas threw himself into the role of slave Caliban, and Val Christmas and John Simpson kept things light-hearted as clown Trincula and drunken butler Stephano.

Back in Bermuda, the cast took on the roles of the shipwrecked Sea Venture's crew and passengers, led by Sir George Somers (Fred Humphrey) and Sir Thomas Gates (John Murphy).

Declan Duffy kept the audience amused as Lyme-born Sylvester Jourdain, who wrote an account of the shipwreck and subsequent events in Bermuda, believed to be used by Shakespeare in writing "The Tempest", although local stage stalwart Brian Rattenbury was quick to dispute that in the role of William Strachey, secretary-

Just like reading "The Tempest" back in that classroom, this is something that won't be forgotten soon.

A scorching start for Lifeboat Week!

■ UP AND AWAY: A welcoming display saw members of the lifeboat crew winched into the coastguard search and rescue helicopters

By FRANCESCA EVANS

francesca@viewnews.co.uk

LYME Regis Lifeboat Week got off to a sunny start on Saturday as thousands packed the town for the annual week of seaside events.

The first major event was a lifeboat welcoming display featuring Lyme's own "Spirit of Loch Fyne" boat alongside the lifeboat from Exmouth and coastguard search and rescue helicopter.

Belly dancing with Eastern Promise and kite making workshops were held on the seafront, followed by a 'Meet the Crew' event, where families were able to get up close to the lifeboat and try on the crew's helmets.

Saturday finished with one of the favourite Lifeboat Week events - the bathtub race - which was again won by Lyme Regis Fire Crew for the sixth year in a row despite tough competition from Axe Skips.

An art exhibition by Lyme Regis Art Society was held on the seafront on Sunday, as well as a sandcastle competition and Songs of Praise service.

The popular fun run was held in the afternoon, started by the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, and Paul Atterbury from BBC's "Antiques Roadshow" who later gave a well-attended talk at Uplyme Village Hall on the history of the RNLI and Victorian Britain.

The traditional illuminated boats was a peaceful and poignant end to a busy weekend, this year dedicated to local fisherman Brian Marks who died following a heart attack on the Cobb. The winning trophy was awarded to fishing boat Miss Pattie, which was decorated with the words "For Brian".

Excitement continued early this week with fly-pasts from the RAF Puma Helicopters and Royal Navy Merlin Helicopter from RNAS Yeovilton on Tuesday among the events. And there's plenty more fun and games scheduled for the rest of the week, with full details available in the Lifeboat Week programme, available from many local outlets including the RNLI shop on the Cobb for £2.

Help and Care when you need it

STONE ME!

By Abi Jackson, Press Association

SO it seems the weather gods finally got the memo that it's summer - hurrah! Of course, no sooner does the sun come out, than those heat-wave health warnings come flooding in.

All very sensible - skin cancer rates have seen alarming rises over recent decades in the UK, and if you're not careful, heat exhaustion can turn into a medical emergency, so slap on the SPF, don't overdo it in the midday sun, and stay well hydrated.

And, if you need another reason to hit that eight-glasses-a-day water intake minimum that experts advise - consider this: dehydration could be putting you at risk of kidney stones...

What are kidney stones?

As the name suggests, kidney stones are small (or sometimes not so small!) stones that form in the kidneys. There are different types, but usually they're made up of deposits of calcium, ammonia, uric acid (one of the by-products from when the body breaks down food) and the amino acid cysteine. The medical term for them is nephrolithiasis.

Who gets them?

As Mr Vivek Wadhwa, a consultant urologist at Spire Parkway Hospital in Solihull (www.spirehealthcare.com), notes, kidney stones are quite common and seen across all ages, from children through to the elderly. "But the peak age is about 20-50," he adds. NHS figures suggest men are slightly more prone to them, with around three in 20 men, and two in 20 women, developing them at some stage. "And we tend to see patterns within certain occupations, and also geographical locations and climates," adds Wadhwa. "For example, taxi drivers, chefs - people who tend to go long hours without drinking. And the highest incidence of kidney stones at the moment is in Dubai; you've got hot weather so people get dehydrated, and they tend to eat a lot of animal protein."

What causes them?

As Wadhwa explains, while kidney stones can be common, there's a reason some people are more prone to them. "One of the main causes of kidney stones is not drinking enough fluid," he says. Put simply, fluids help flush the kidneys and keep things in healthy working order, while diets high in animal proteins can lead to an increase in uric acid, which may cause stones. Higher rates can run in families too, and certain medications are also associated with kidney stones. Sometimes pre-existing conditions, certain inherited conditions or a history of kidney problems can also mean you're more at risk.

Are they really that painful?

Some stones are so tiny, they can easily go unnoticed, but generally, they are known to be extremely painful. Those tiny tubes aren't designed to have hard, bulky stones pass through them, so they can trigger an intense pain response that spreads across the back and abdomen. "Ladies always say it's more painful than childbirth," says Wadhwa. "It's excruciating if the stone lodges in the urethra. The kidney's trying to excrete urine, and it can't. The main symptom is a sharp intermittent pain in the back, radiating around to the front."

Can it be serious?

While agonising, often kidney stones are a short-term problem and not serious. However, Wadhwa stresses it's important for anybody who experiences extreme, acute pain to seek medical attention. Firstly, "you still have to rule out other things, like appendicitis, pancreatitis, ectopic pregnancy, aneurism... Quite often, until we've done a scan, we don't know what we're dealing with".

Secondly, if a kidney stone causes a blockage or obstruction, this can rapidly turn very serious. "If you get a complete blockage then the kidney has nowhere to drain and you can get an acute infected obstructed system, and people do die from that," Wadhwa says. So if you also have a high temperature and fever and are very unwell, it's important to get to hospital urgently.

How are kidney stones treated?

Treatment usually starts, says Wadhwa, with adequate fluid and pain relief. Often this is all that's required, but more problematic and larger stones might need further treatment. "If the kidney's obstructed, you have to de-obstruct the kidney by putting a tube in the back, and then you have to deal with the stone - it all depends on the size and position," Wadhwa explains. "If the stone's in the kidney and it's small, usually it's shock wave lithotripsy (ESWL, a non-invasive treatment that breaks up stones with shockwaves), and patients will be in and out within an hour.

"Options for bigger stones include using a laser to break them up, and if the stone's really big, then you do percutaneous nephrolithotomy (PCNL), which means putting a tube directly into the kidney, breaking up the stone and sucking it out. This used to mean cutting open the tummy, but now it can all be done with minimally invasive techniques."

How can I prevent them?

Once you've had a kidney stone, you are at greater risk of having more. However, much of the advice for avoiding kidney stones applies to everybody, since they can be so common. "In the old days, we used to tell patients things like, 'Don't drink milk, avoid dairy products etc', but we don't tend to do that any more," says Wadhwa. "What we do say is it's about a healthy diet, plenty of fluids, high fibre and low salt - those are the main things. I tell my patients to drink at least two to three litres of fluid a day."

It was just a perfect (Red Letter) day

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

IT was just about the perfect day. I'm referring to Thursday of last week, designated Lyme's Red Letter Day and crowned by a fantastic display from the Red Arrows.

Lyme has a special relationship with the RAF's crack aerobatic team going back more than 40 years.

They have never disappointed with the fabulous manoeuvres over Lyme Bay - but Thursday's performance, threatened earlier in the day by low cloud, was in a different class; their new, full 23-minute programme brought gasps from the huge crowd, which covered virtually every blade of grass in the gardens, was three or four deep along the seafront and which occupied every vantage point the coast and on the cliffs overlooking the town.

For those of us involved in the organisation of the day, it was quite emotional to see the reaction from the crowd.

After watching the Arrows, so many people told us that it made them "proud to be British".

Performing outside of Lifeboat Week for only the second time - the first display was during Regatta and Carnival Week - the crowd during the day was not as large as in previous years. This probably had a great deal to do with the timing of the performance at 7pm which brought people into Lyme later than usual, but by the time

Time to go back to the days of Tom and Jack

■ OUR front page story last week on how scruffy Lyme looks as the peak season gets under way has been the subject of much talk about town.

Former councillor and observer of all things Lyme, Ken Gollop, drew the council's attention to the unkempt state of many areas in the town, highlighting the amount of weeds growing through the pavements and along the seafront, overflowing waste bins, unsightly building works and overbearing signage.

Mr Gollop called on the town, district and county councils to work together to resolve these issues.

This has prompted one of our readers to take up the fight for immediate attention (see page 19) to be given to the disgraceful state of the river banks, a subject which has got a recent airing on social media.

The state of the River Lym, from the Budle through to Horn Bridge, has never been in a worse state but none of the authorities are prepared to take responsibility for it.

Back in the day Tom Hodder and Jack Beviss, who did much to keep Lyme spick and span at all times, kept the river banks in neat order several times a year. They would start at the Budle and work their way up to Horn Bridge cutting back all the growth to make sure the river flowed properly and looked attractive.

Surely it is not beyond the wit of the three councils to come up with a solution?

Another area that is also overdue for a spruce-up is the entrance to the Marine Parade, always described by former mayor Victor Homyer as "Lyme's shop window".

The town council have already decided to remove the ugly rotunda which advertises events at the Marine Theatre and the adjacent bus shelter, which is in an awful state, also needs attention.

seven o'clock came the size of the crowd looked as big as usual and there wasn't a parking space to be found.

We labelled Thursday Red Letter Day and organised a few events leading up to the Red Arrows, mainly for the kids. It took me back to my regatta days when I was secretary for ten years from the age of 19.

It brought back to me what fun we had during the regatta's halcyon days in the late sixties and throughout the seventies - but demonstrated succinctly that I couldn't do seven days of event organising any more. I couldn't walk for days.

Thanks to the support of the Mayor, Owen Lovell, and the town council, we were able to rescue this year's visit to Lyme by the Red Arrows after the disappointment of them not been able to perform during Lifeboat Week.

It was a good example of the local council working in tandem with volunteers to put on a spectacle that gave Lyme a bumper start to the peak season.

I had tremendous support from Cheryl Reynolds who worked her socks off during the week and even put herself up for going in the stocks to be pelted with wet sponges, along with good sports Sean Larcombe, Jeff Scowen and Geoff Baker.

The reception for the Red Arrows 100 Club was inspiring and we are very grateful for their financial support, along with one hugely generous local company, who made it possible to raise the fee which the Red Arrows are now forced to charge.

The most bizarre memory I will have is of new councillor Jeff Scowen, a committed raver, ferociously dancing with local market gardener Nigel Ball (never likely to appear on Strictly) to the music of local band Delta Tango 7 later in the evening. Someone said it would end in tears - and it did. Nigel fell over and damaged his ankle seriously enough to be taken to hospital.

As always my staff joined in the fun and helped tremendously throughout the week, especially my daughter Francesca, and a heartfelt thanks to all those who rallied round to make it a real Red Letter Day for Lyme.

All I can say is, Lyme you did us proud yet again!

■ CONGRATULATIONS to the Marine Theatre for staging their outdoor production of 'The Tempest of Lyme' last week.

tron of the Marine who holds his hometown in great affection, it attracted sell-out audiences every night and received rave reviews.

It also emphasised just how much talent there is in this small town.

Local ladies to take part in Shine Walk for charity

SET TO SHINE: Emily Rice and Vicky White are organising fundraising events ahead of the Shine Walk in London

LYME Regis ladies Vicky White and Emily Rice will be hosting fundraising events in August ahead of the Shine Walk in London in aid of Cancer Research UK.

Vicky and Emily are taking part in the 26.2-mile nighttime walk around the capital on Saturday, September 24th to raise funds specifically for research in liver and lung and children's cancers.

To boost their funds they will be holding a disco at Lyme Regis Power Boat Club on Saturday, August 6th from 8pm to 1am.

Busy programme at Town Mill

AMONG the stunning items on display at the cast glass show at the Town Mill's Courtyard Gallery in Lyme Regis until August 3rd will be sparkling ammonites crafted in glass.

"Five Glass Artists" is the title of this exhibition that showcases the skills of five women who create objects in glass. Following last year's successful exhibition at the Town Mill, the highly-trained artists, who are passionate about experimentation and innovation, have decided to return with a range of new creations.

Kiln-formed, as opposed to blown, glass is a beautiful art form that can be expressed in many different ways. The objects can be sculptured or flat, large or small, and with or without inclusions.

As exhibition curator Celia Goodman, a part-time Lyme resident, explained: "The inspiration for much of our work comes from the coast and sea around Lyme so the town is fitting location for our show." The other four members of the group are Alex Archbold, Kathy Collins, Harriet Pelham and Myra Wishart.

"Five Glass Artists" is now open everyday between 10.30am and 4.30pm at the Courtyard Gallery at the Town Mill. Entry is free and all items are for sale. For further information, visit www.townmillarts.co.uk

■ A TRIO of internationally-renowned artists, two veteran painters and a ceramicist - all with connections to America but now living in the South West - have been brought together for the first time in a unique exhibition and retrospective called "Expression", which will run from July 30th to August 16th at the Town Mill's Malthouse Gallery in Lyme Regis.

The paintings in this exhibition are colourful, landscape-based abstract works by Dorset-based John Hubbard and Devon-born Patrick Jones that evoke the essence of coastal waters and are united by the painters' shared experiences and cultural influences, especially their formative years spent in New York.

"We are delighted to have these three acclaimed artists being exhibited at The Malthouse as this quality of exhibition raises the profile of and attracts wider audiences to our galleries, which are two of our long-term priorities," said Gary Willis, chairman of the Town Mill Trustees.

"Expression" has been devised for the Town Mill by Deborah Wood from The Art Room, an experienced arts professional who has been facilitating exhibitions in the South West for many years.

Philip Clayton, Town Mill Arts curator, has re-vamped the Malthouse for this exhibition, as part of the move towards developing a new image and future for the gallery.

The exhibition is open daily from 10.30am to 4.30pm, and further details can be found on www.townmillarts.co.uk

■ OVER the weekend of July 30th to 31st, the Town Mill in Lyme Regis will be hosting the first of two summer weekends called "Inspire! Arts and Crafts in Action".

This will be a special weekend in which the mill's own thriving arts community will be joined by local artists and craftsmen demonstrating their particular medium and expertise, which will offer visitors an insight into the skill and creativity involved and a chance to make or buy something special to take home. If you are an artist or photographer, you are encouraged to come along and spend time at the mill over the weekend: painting, drawing or capturing images of this unique complex.

On the Saturday evening from 5pm to 7pm, Lyme's own acclaimed blues musician and songwriter, Adam Sweet, will be returning to the mill to entertain visitors once again in the courtyard with his virtuous guitar style and unique voice.

Refreshments will be available throughout the weekend from the Courtyard Cafe and Brewery Tap.

For further information, visit the website www.townmill.org.uk

Remembering World Cup win

AS England gets set to mark the 50th anniversary of winning the World Cup against West Germany in 1966 this Saturday, local historian Ken Gollop remembers how Lifeboat Day organisers had to come up with a quick plan to make sure the match didn't clash with their events.

He said: "Before the lifeboat arrived in 1967 we had a small fundraising committee whose main event was Lifeboat Day, usually at the end of July."

"Imagine our dismay when it was announced that England would play the World Cup final on our allotted day. I remember Mr Heape, our secretary, coming down to the Cobb saying, 'What are we going to do, no-one will be out and about in Lyme then?'

"After a bit of discussion we decided if football was going to take our people away from us, we would bring the football to the people."

"Over the course of the next 48 hours the council allowed us to use the west end of the shelters and all the deck chairs we needed. Wallis and Tomlin installed the largest TV they could find - their Viewline cable ran through the gardens behind the shelters. The boatmen provided large tarpaulins to hang from the top shelter railing to darken the interior. All free of charge we had a public TV lounge."

"Some quick blackboard advertising around town resulted in a full audience of a couple of hundred who fully enjoyed the event, cheering and boozing included; the atmosphere was tremendous, equal to any you see on TV today."

"At the end our donation baskets filled quickly and I remember many joyful visitors helping us clear up afterwards. I expect there are still quite a few around the country who remember seeing the 1966 World Cup in Lyme Regis."

■ LYME Regis Football Club will be marking the 50th anniversary of the World Cup win with a day of events this Saturday, July 30th, including a screening of the winning 1966 match at 3pm.

This will be preceded by the Seasiders playing a friendly match and there will also be a barbecue throughout the afternoon.

Pints will be priced at "1966 prices" of £1.50 during the screening and football fans are encouraged to wear their retro England shirts. Admission is free and all are welcome.

A message for councillors: stand up and be counted, don't hide behind legislation

■ YOUR front page headline in last week's View From Lyme Regis (July 20th) comes as no surprise to me and I am sure many others who knew our town when it was managed and controlled by Lyme Regis Borough Council.

1) The beach and seafront have weeds growing on them. How soon before someone starts growing flowers and vegetables?

2) Our river from Horn Bridge to the mouth is absolutely disgusting and has been for ages. Weeds, bushes and trees out of control, not to mention that Japanese knotweed, which we were all, nationwide, warned of the dangerous effect it has on our plant life, but now grows in abundance on the banks of our river, and how can anyone enjoy the sight or the obvious spectacle of neglect looking at the river from Mill Green along the Lynch?

3) The seagull problem. Having experienced a seagull swooping down and attacking and destroying food being laid out in my own garden just last week, I can personally understand the feeling of fright and dismay it leaves. I guess I was lucky it didn't attack me, like the little boy on the beach the other day.

OK, I can hear you saying "what do you propose doing about the foregoing?". Well, I am not suggesting for one minute that I have the immediate or probable solution. However, a start would be for the town council to address the situations and not hide behind legislation.

1) Have our current council workers destroy the weeds initially and manage and control them continually in the future.

2) Hire a couple of people capable of keeping the river constantly free of debris and growth, and oppose opposition to that by accepting that if they don't do it, the town will. It could also provide employment for a couple of locals (a'hem, people living in the town). They could also do any pointing required on the Cobb and around the town.

3) This isn't so easy, except to say a few years back Lyme had its own tip on top of the cliffs between Lyme and Charmouth where the seagull population gathered to nest, feed and breed. No, I appreciate that was a landfill tip and no longer is that style of waste disposal acceptable, but the area is still there and supposedly could be used to entice seagulls there using modern-day thinking and technology, especially during the summer months.

Just imagine our summer visitors seeing gulls but not having the fear, that's how it used to be. Oh, I am not supposed to say that, am I?

The foregoing are just three items of many that deny Lyme of what it deserves, a spectacle to impress. Ken Gollop and Stan Williams have observed and state that there are many more.

In conclusion, I would urge our council to stand up and be counted for the requirements of our town and don't let so-called regulations, health and safety, within reason, and legislation undermine our needs. Bottom line, the town belongs to its residents 12 months a year and the councillors were elected to meet their needs, not hide behind legislature.

In other words, have the desire and provide the necessary when required, or why bother to be a councillor?

Les Loveridge, Woodmead Road, Lyme Regis

Please think again about removing rotunda

■ WHAT is our town council thinking of?

They spend thousands of pounds supporting the Marine Theatre, and rightly so, but have, in a petty-minded way, decreed the removal of the advertising rotunda from Cobb Gate, apparently without consultation or consideration of the effect on the theatre.

Tucked away as it behind the Guildhall, it cannot be obvious to many visitors that we even have a theatre. I would urge councillors to do a few minutes of research, standing by the rotunda and observing the number of passers-by and bus queue members reading about upcoming events.

This decision is highly likely to have a devastating effect on ticket sales at the theatre, and increase the need for subsidy or, heaven forbid, cause us to lose this most-valued treasure.

I urge our representatives to reconsider this decision; does it express the will of the local electorate? I doubt it! Has anybody even complained about the rotunda?

It will no doubt cost thousands of pounds to remove it and replace it with what? Please, please think again!

Palace on Thursday, August 11th. Described by Maverick Magazine as "one of the world's greatest performers", Stompin' Dave performs bluegrass, blues, vintage country, folk and rock'n' roll. He sings and plays guitar, banjo, fiddle, harmonica, piano and tap dances in an old-time flat-footing style, often whilst playing an instrument.

With twenty five years of performing experience Dave has worked exclusively as a musician and performed across the UK and beyond including major festivals such as Glastonbury, Bestival, and Camp Bestival.

A former member of former UK blues band of the year The Producers, Stompin' Dave was nominated for a British Blues Award in the acoustic act category 2014. Winner of the FOAOTMAD old-time banjo competition 2011 and 2013.

Dave has stomped onto the line-up of some top folk festivals including Cork Folk Festival, Warwick Folk Festival, Towersey Folk Festival, Priddy Folk Festival and many other festivals, and clubs. Dave has been invited to play at both The Boogaloo Blues Festival on the Isle of Wight and The Great Dorset Steam Fair for over seven years in succession.

Dave has performed many concerts in art centres and theatres alongside touring musicians from the USA including the legendary Whitetop Mountain Band from Virginia, W.C. Handy award winner Guy Davis, International Bluegrass Achievement award winner Alice Gerrard, and Jack Lawrence musical partner of guitar great Doc Watson as well as many others.

Stompin' Dave has been billed as a headline act at festivals, these have included The Cornish Folk Festival, National Banjo Day and The Tolpuddle Martyrs Festival. He has made several visits to the USA including competing in the US national bluegrass banjo, and international flat-picking guitar contests.

The past few years has seen teaming up with award winning drummer Sam Kelly, rock n roll artist Earl Jackson and top London hoedown band Cut A Shine. It has been three years since Dave has performed a solo concert in his home town of Bridport.

This summer Dave was invited by world renowned rock guitarist Jeff Beck to perform at his new album showcase.

Circus Wonderland comes back to Bridport

BRITAIN'S most magical circus is returning to Asker Meadows with high flying acrobats, unicyclists and clowns promising thrills and spills for all the family.

Appearing in the UK for the first time, the Chalimero Troupe will be launched like lightning from the springboard, flipping and flying across the arena, whilst one wheeled wonders Duo Hatton will dazzle audiences with a unique unicycling union of breathtaking balance and perilously poised perfection.

Amidst the action and excitement, award winning clowns Kakehole and Mr Popol are returning to scale new summits of silliness with their crazy comic capers.

Mr Popol, who is also known by day as Circus Director Paul Carpenter, is particularly pleased to be returning to Bridport. "This will be our third visit to the town, and we always receive a great welcome," he explained. "We have built up a very loyal following in Bridport as our show is really aimed at the family audience with lots of comedy and participation, as well as the more daring acts that will have you on the edge of your seat!"

Miracle Theatre's the Magnificent Three is coming to Lyme Regis

A rooting-tooting toe-tappin' Western

HOLD onto your horses award-winning Miracle Theatre are bringing the Wild West to Marine Theatre.

The Magnificent Three is a rootin' tootin' comedy spaghetti western performed in the beautiful outdoor setting of the Marine Theatre.

Inspired by the stories of Zane Grey and countless interchangeable B movie plots, this wild west tale has been written & directed by Bill Scott with music by Tom Adams.

Heading west across Dead Man's Prairie, the trail hits a watering hole called Hope Springs. Not a lot ever happened here: mostly lone-some strangers, minding their own business, passing on through but then word got out that the railroad was coming and the town got a whole lot wilder. Seems even most trusted folk can't always be counted on when there's money to be made and power to be had...

Gather up your posse it's time to head out to the Wild Frontier with award-winning Miracle for a rootin'-tootin', side-splittin', finger-clickin', toe-tappin', saloon-door-swingin', double-cross-dressin', Hoe-down dancin', quick-draw slinging, Spaghetti Western adventure...YEEHAW!

Two talented trios team up to deliver this silly spaghetti western. Miracle regulars Cat Lake, Hannah Stephens, Rebecca Rowe, Ben Ker-now and Ciaran Clarke are joined by Jason Squibb for this summer 2016 outdoor tour.

Miracle's open-air theatre productions have become a 'must do' summer activity with hundreds of people enjoying Miracle's shows in stunning locations.

Bill Scott, Artistic Director of Miracle Theatre said of the show: "Open air performances are a real joy ... you can sit where you want, eat what you want, wear whatever you like, it's a very relaxed and enjoyable experience. Every night is different, each setting is transformed as night falls; the actors can never be sure what to expect and must be ready to respond to a dramatic moonrise, a sudden shower or a wild animal trying to get in on the act, there's nothing quite like it for players and audience alike – it is a genuine shared experience."

Accompanied by the strains of country music, reinvented by Tom Adams, The Magnificent Three is comical look at gender politics and anarchy, set among endless prairies, swinging bar doors and smoking guns - with not a horse in sight... yeehaw!

The show comes to the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, August 10th and Thursday, August 11th

Can you be persuaded?

THE Chamber Opera Chicago's new original musical adaptation of Persuasion brings a vibrant twist to Jane Austen's novel and features songs from Jane Austen's manuscripts and music of the era. The production also features Regency costumes, chamber orchestra, projected scenery and Irish dancers!

Anne Elliot has rejected a proposal of marriage from the one man she truly loved, Captain Frederick Wentworth. She was persuaded by her godmother that Captain Wentworth was unworthy, but after a separation of almost a decade, he returns from sea with both rank and fortune. The tables have turned, Anne is nearly an old maid and her once rich family is on the verge of bankruptcy. Can Anne win him back? Can he forgive her for breaking off their engagement rather than following her heart? And can their lost love be rekindled?

One of the most powerful love stories ever written, this authentic rendering adaptation will transport you back in time!

Persuasion will be performed at the Marine Theatre this Friday, July 29th, and Saturday, July 30th at 7.30pm each night. Tickets are £11/£9, available from www.marinetheatre.com, or by calling Lyme Regis TIC on 01297 442138.

'DIFFERENT ROADS SOMETIMES LEAD TO THE SAME CASTLE'

If you follow Game of Thrones you might recognise the quote but I think it sums up the post Brexit mood quite well. Whether you voted remain or leave we are where we are and there is a collective desire to arrive at the same place. A stronger, stable and healthy economy is the desire of everyone.

Research from Symonds & Sampson shows that we are on the right course with more sales agreed since the referendum than in the same period last year. In 2015 we were expecting a post-election lull but it was slow to materialise and the summer lull came early. This year people have postponed making the decision until the outcome but then, in the overwhelming number of cases, proceeded as they had planned.

So what's the explanation? For most buyers and sellers the drivers to move are employment, age and more importantly the stage of their life, affordability and housing need. So if you think you're still going to have a job, still need somewhere to live and can access mortgage lending then needs must. Moving to be nearer work or grandchildren, a desire for a larger or smaller house or garden or just a place of your own are decisions that cannot be put off forever and being happy is often far more important than worrying about what might happen in two, three or five years.

Change is likely to be slow – interest rates are forecast to remain low and lending availability should remain constant, unlike in 2008/9 when the banks were in deep trouble. This means we would expect house prices to remain stable as demand persists and new supply is historically weak. This said, with uncertainty comes hesitation and we may see the number of transactions cool as people feel less urgency to move or climb the ladder. So while the basic need to buy and sell will keep the market predictable for the majority of buyers, there have been some interesting upshots from the Brexit vote.

Our sales throughout Dorset, Devon, Somerset, Wiltshire and Hampshire have been strong, £45 million agreed since 24 June, with buyers continuing to move from the South East and London but it is the enquiries from expats in Europe that have been most interesting. Many UK citizens living in France, for example, are nervous about President Hollande and the taxes that he might impose on them.

A welcome by-product of the Brexit vote may well be that a root and branch review of the structural housing deficit is high on the political agenda, leading to a more creative and concerted long-term strategy to build more suitable homes. The abandonment of the 2020 target for eradicating the budgetary deficit may give more funding options than previously existed to make some serious inroads.

So the current sentiment seems more concerned with day to day practicalities of life than the uncontrollable machinations of global politics. There can be no doubt that impacts to the cost of borrowing, employment, skilled migration for the house building sector, internal UK politics and EU deals will all influence the housing market but with a new prime minister who appears strong, and certainly no pussy cat despite the kitten heels, it seems that we are back on the right road.

KATE WISCOMBE PROMOTION

JEREMY Smith, Partner of Symonds & Sampson in Beaminster is seen here with Kate Wiscombe who has recently received a promotion to Senior Negotiator. Jeremy commented 'Kate Wiscombe has been with us for some time and is an integral part of the branches continued success and this promotion is richly deserved'. Kate commented 'I am absolutely thrilled to be given this promotion and I would like to say a big thank you to all of Symonds & Sampson clients, both past present and future and without you giving us your properties to sell, this promotion will not have been possible'. Jeremy added 'if you are considering selling or are indeed on the market without success, why not contact us for your free valuation on 01308 863100'.

JEREMY Smith, Partner of Symonds & Sampson Beaminster, is seen here with a delighted Mrs. Roy who has very kindly bought the office a bottle of champagne in recognition of their performance with regard to selling her and her husband's property in Beaminster, also their onward purchase through Symonds & Sampson in Broadwindsor.

Emily commented 'I cannot speak highly enough of Jeremy and his award winning team as they sold my property for a good price very quickly and were helpful in an awkward transaction with the move to my new home in Broadwindsor. I must say myself and my family are absolutely delighted and I would certainly recommend Symonds & Sampson to anyone who is considering selling locally'.

Jeremy commented 'I am delighted that Mr. and Mrs. Roy were pleased with our service and I am sure they will have a long and happy time in their new property in Broadwindsor'. We are still finding the market extremely busy, indeed our sales are far outstripping the new instructions and therefore we need more properties to sell. If you are considering selling or are on the market without success, please contact us on 01308 863100.

New Peugeot 2008 SUV: The popular and versatile SUV offers even more attractive features for customers

THE recently revised new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV that arrived in UK showrooms in June is in strong demand with over 40,000 existing UK customers and 500,000 produced since launch in 2013. The appetite for this model continues to rise, with sales in the first half of 2016 up 16%, with 99,900 units sold worldwide.

In the UK, attractive retail consumer offers are available for customers of the new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV who can benefit from finance offers with 4.9% APR across all models between July and September 2016. Customers will also benefit from an £850 customer saving on new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV (exc Access A/C) and an additional £350 Dealer deposit contribution if the customer chooses PEUGEOT Passport or Just Add Fuel®.

A PEUGEOT Passport finance package with a customer deposit of £1,000, on a new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV PureTech 82, results in monthly payments of £211 for the Active and £237 for the Allure model. Customers choosing PEUGEOT's 'Just Add Fuel®' all-encompassing, 3-year finance package on the same model will have a monthly payment of £241 for the Active and £268 for the Allure model, and the 'Just Add Fuel® Telematics' finance package is also available for 18 year olds and above.

Examples given are for a 40-year old living in a low risk Band 2 Postcode. Terms & Conditions apply*

The latest PEUGEOT 2008 SUV has recently been updated, with refreshed styling and featuring an enhanced specification. It has an even more assertive and appealing SUV design, including visual features to give it an enhanced presence; new wheel arch extensions (from Allure level), while a new vertical front grille and front and rear scuff plates (also from Allure level) confirm its robustness and are designed for everyday use. The new 'Ultimate Red' colour further epitomises the power and desirability of the new 2008 SUV. The Access A/C, Active and Allure levels are complemented by the new 'GT Line' model. This desirable trim level is already a very popular choice on other key PEUGEOT models (108, 208, 308 and 508), and adds a sporty theme throughout.

The PEUGEOT i-Cockpit® is unique to the Brand and embodies the driving characteristics of the PEUGEOT 2008 SUV, being agile, intuitive and safe. The compact sports steering wheel offers precise steering and improved manoeuvrability, while the 7" multifunction colour touch screen puts all the functionality at your fingertips. In addition, the head-up instrument panel allows driver information to be accessed without taking the eyes off the road.

Grip Control - an adapted traction system - gives the new 2008 SUV its versatility on all types of terrain. It is combined with Mud & Snow (All-Season) tyres. Equipment available on new PEUGEOT 2008 SUV includes (subject to trim level) MirrorScreen, and Carplay®, along with the reversing camera, Active City Brake and Park Assist - a rarity in this segment. The Euro6 engines ensure high-level driving pleasure while remaining fuel efficient. Four versions are 'Best-in-Class' in their segment, including the 1.2L PureTech 130 S&S 6-speed manual.

Mark Pickles, UK Marketing Director at PEUGEOT, said: "The 2008 SUV is a distinctive and popular, practical choice with our customers, with 500,000 of them worldwide and with sales up 16% in the first half of 2016. Our current retail offers bring increased appeal to an already captivating vehicle."

The extensive 2008 SUV range made simple:

Four trim level choices: Access A/C, Active, Allure and GT Line

Price range: from £13,615 to £20,565 (on-the-road)

Engine choice: three PureTech (82hp, 110hp & 130hp) and three Blue HDi (75hp, 100hp & 120hp)

Lanehouse Vauxhall Identifies Top Summer Road Trips for Dorset Drivers

VAUXXHALL retailer Lanehouse Vauxhall, with sites in Bridport and Weymouth, is encouraging families to take to the road and make the most of the school break with its Summer of Fun Top Five guide to attractions across the South East. With the long holidays stretching ahead, this handy list identifies some of the best places to visit to keep the whole family entertained without breaking the bank.

For families in Dorset, the guide highlights some of the South East's gems that are a little off the beaten track or in picturesque locations - making for a scenic and enjoyable road trip.

Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Vauxhall, said: "Going on a day out should be fun from the moment you get in the car, so we wanted to highlight some of the best places to visit during the school holidays. From getting closer to nature to understanding more about our local heritage, this handy guide should offer something for all the family."

"At Vauxhall our range of vehicles is designed to make the journey as enjoyable as possible, so for families looking to upgrade their in-car experience this summer we'd encourage them to visit the showroom to see the spacious Mokka and check out our connected car system, OnStar - available on selected models, which makes entertainment instantly accessible while you're on the road."

VAUXHALL SUMMER OF FUN TOP FIVE – SOUTH EAST

Roald Dahl Museum and Story Centre, Buckinghamshire

The Museum, aimed at 6 to 12 year olds, features three interactive galleries. Boy gallery looks at Roald Dahl's school days, while Solo gallery houses his original Writing Hut. The Story Centre puts your imagination centre-stage with an array of activities to inspire the writer in young visitors.

Lewes Castle, Sussex

Climb to the top of this 1000 year old Norman Castle for stunning panoramic views across Sussex. The adjoining Barbican House is home to the Museum of Sussex Archaeology and houses local collections from the Stone Age to medieval times. There is a programme of educational events during the summer holiday to ensure young visitors get the most from this stunning venue.

Freightliners Farm, Islington

For city-dwellers, Freightliners City Farm, a charity in the heart of Islington, provides an exciting opportunity to experience a real working farm in action. With a range of rare breed animals and fun activities, this is a great day out for the whole family.

Rochester Castle, Kent

Strategically placed astride the London Road, guarding an important crossing of the River Medway, this imposing fortress has a complex history of destruction and rebuilding. Today it stands as a proud reminder of the history of Rochester along with the cathedral and cobbled streets. With an extensive summer programme of crafts and cinema in this striking setting, it's well worth the visit.

Broadstairs and St Peter's Beaches

Broadstairs and St Peter's have seven sandy beaches at the feet of towering chalk cliffs. Charles Dickens holidayed here and The Dickens Museum tops off a family day out to this charming location.

For further information or to view Vauxhall's extensive range of family-friendly vehicles, visit your local Lanehouse Vauxhall or go online to www.lanehousevauxhall.co.uk.

Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

Four in four! a record for Rhys?

Defeated, but Dunford signs off with fine innings

Devon League 2nd XI Division C

UPLYME & LR 1st XI 230 FOR 6 BEAT

FENITON 1st XI 127 ALL OUT BY 103 RUNS

BOTH Uplyme & Lyme Regis sides struggled to put out their strongest team as the holiday season took its toll on player availability.

But the first XI still proved too strong for visitors Feniton thanks in the main to a match-winning knock of 73 from Michael Van den Berg and a possible piece of club history from bowler Rhys Davies.

On winning the toss Feniton had no hesitation in inserting their hosts on what was a worn pitch. They were immediately rewarded with the wicket of Rob Thom bowled by Jon French for just a single.

But Laurie Thomas and Mark Brimicombe dug in and built a solid partnership of 69 before Brimicombe was snapped off the the bowling of Charlie Selley.

When Thomas eventually went to a return catch to Selley for a patient 35 Uplyme had reached 91 and needed to increase the rate in the remaining 15 overs.

Mark Batey went for 8, but the partnership between Steve Batey and van den Berg turned the game on its head.

Together they plundered the Devonians' bowling for another 130 runs before Batey was run out for 51 and the South African was caught by Selley off Anning completing a fine knock of 73 that included four sixes and seven fours.

Uplyme took the field in confident fashion and Nick Dinnison bowled Graham Tucker with the score on 16 to give them the start they wanted.

They then had to be patient as Mark Salter and skipper Jon Pyle set about building a partnership. The breakthrough came when Steve Batey had Salter caught behind with the score on 67.

Skipper Batey then introduced Rhys Davies to the attack in the unaccustomed position of first change, a move that proved to be vital to the fortune of the team.

Davies regained his bowling composure in a spell that saw him take four wickets in four consecutive deliveries – a feat that is thought to be a club record.

Club chairman Derek Wellman said: "I can't remember in my 40 years at the club anybody else performing this feat – the closest I can recall was Henry Barlow taking four in an over, but not in a row."

The Feniton resistance subsequently crumbled and it was left to Dinnison and van den Berg to mop up the tail as Fenny were dismissed for 127 in the 39th over.

UPLYME & LR 2nd XI 131 ALL OUT

LOST TO EXMOUTH 3RDS 203 BY 72 RUNS

SKIPPER JAMES Dunford's heroic innings of 88 failed to save the nine-man Uplyme 2nd XI from defeat at Exmouth 3rds.

The depleted line-up restricted their hosts to 203 all out thanks for four wickets from the impressive Gabriel Maltby and some magnificent efforts from Harry Jobson and George Hussey in the outfield.

Dunford, in his last innings for the club before leaving the area, batted superbly and the team banked eight valuable points in their quest to beat relegation.

Davis holding series lead

A SW BREEZE eased for the second race before filling in again for the third of the day, gave 18 Lyme Regis Sailing Club members the opportunity to take part in the RNLI Tankard which is always sailed during Lifeboat week.

The RNLI Pennant race will be held on Wednesday, July 27th, when boats pay an entry fee which is donated to the Guild. Once again, the second race had to be abandoned due to confusion over the course to be sailed, and once again, Cameron Moss headed the fleet and won a trophy.

Cameron & Darrol Moss led the way over the upwind - downwind course ending with a first place in their RS 800, while Chris & Russell Thorne (Fireball) took the third race over a triangular course by a margin of 17 seconds from Cameron.

Simon Clark (RS 700) came second to Cameron in the first race but did not compete in the third.

Steady with third in both races was Dave Guthrie in his Phantom. The races were also part of the Mid Summer Series.

When series races are held, points favour regular participation. One discard is allowed, so Hilton Davis, who has sailed all of the current series with one retirement, now leads on 29 points from Dave Guthrie on 46.

The club cruisers, although not strictly set up as racing boats, are keenly competitive on the RYA handicap system and set off on an hour long race to the sewer buoy and back for their RNLI Wine Bottle race.

Rob & Margaret Wiscombe (Hunter Medina class), finished ahead of Andrew Willoughby & Mike Moore (Hunter Medina), 3rd Keith & Kaye Thompson (Parker 21) 4th Berey Pealing & Hugh Duncan (Hunter Medina).

Thompson (Parker 21) by six seconds, while Berey Pealing & High Duncan were two minutes behind in fourth.

RNLI Tankard (and Mid Summer Series 7&9): 1st Cameron & Darroll Moss (RS 800), 2nd Simon Clark (RS700), 3rd Dave Guthrie (Phantom). 1st Chris & Russell Thorne (Fireball), 2nd Cameron & Darroll Moss (RS 800) 3rd Dave Guthrie (Phantom).

RNLI Wine Bottle: 1st Rob & Margaret Wiscombe (Hunter Medina), 2nd Andrew Willoughby & Mike Moore (Hunter Medina), 3rd Keith & Kaye Thompson (Parker 21) 4th Berey Pealing & Hugh Duncan (Hunter Medina).

Meanwhile, preparations are under way for the club's 95th Regatta. Entries can be made online on the club website, with Notice of Race, Sailing Instructions and details.

More trophies as progress continues

LYME Regis Gig Club continued their recent advances with some excellent recent performances at Bridport and Teignmouth.

The sun shone at West Bay for the Bridport Regatta, where 12 local clubs took part. Lyme fielded a record 19 crews in the various races throughout the day, including for the first time two under 14s crews.

For most of these youth rowers it was their first taste of the intensity of racing - from the build-up to the start line, to the intensity of the mass racing starts, from racing around the buoys to chasing down the opposition towards the end and they loved every bit of it!

Both crews did the club proud and should look forward to future races with much confidence as they held their own amongst a field of crews almost entirely made up of under 16s.

For the Lyme Ladies the highlight was a second place in the Ladies A race, beating some high class crews. This result is arguably the ladies' best result this year, working their way up through the racing field throughout the race, which is a very hard task indeed.

The Men's A and Men's Vets continued their local dominance winning in both classes and are now considered to be 'the crews to beat' amongst the Dorset clubs.

Overall Lyme came second in the regatta, a highly commendable result, and would like to thank the excellent squad of co-gig rowers at Bridport for a superb regatta.

The Teignmouth Regatta also benefited from fine weather. For this regatta the opposition is of a very high level with crews from all over Devon and Dorset.

The flat water always benefits the fitter crews who can apply superior fitness with every stroke. However, this also means that the racing is even more exhausting and will sap every last bit of energy from weary muscles. Lyme took three ladies crews and three men's crews, most of which delivered solid results.

Once again the Ladies A crew put in a solid performance, coming third of the 10 crews racing. This again displays how they have progressed over recent months with all the hard hours training in Lyme Bay paying dividends.

The Men's A crew had a dramatic race, getting tangled up with the Salcombe crew on both turns and being forced off course as a result. In such exchanges only one crew can prevail and in this case it was Salcombe. By the time they had recovered Lyme had dropped from first to last!

However, disappointment was soon forgotten as the Men's Vets crew, facing some of the best crews in the country, dominated their race from the start, taking home yet another trophy for Lyme Regis. Lyme would like to thank the River Teign Rowing Club for a well organised regatta and some great cakes!

Lyme Gig Club have now won nine trophies this season so far, more than ever before, with plenty more races to come, including the Lyme Regis Gig Regatta on the Cobb on Saturday, August 13th. Spectators and supporters are very welcome and the Cobb wall makes for a great view of the gig racing throughout the day.

Decimated by Dorch!

THERE was yet another disappointing week for the men in their various league campaigns while the Ladies having a week off from league competition.

The championship side struggled for their two points against a very strong Dorchester side. Paul Pomeroy's and Barry Rattenbury's rinks both going down by four shots with Paul Moffitt's rink scraping home by two shots.

Lyme 2 had a tough time away to Portland Victoria, on a green of dubious character, just managing to snaffle two points with a narrow win on Don Meylan's rink.

The South Dorset team had a nightmare against Dorchester B losing by an eyewatering 47 shots!

On Thursday, Ladies captain Angela Rattenbury held her Captain's day match and meal at the Club, with invited guests playing a round-robin game against five Lyme teams. The other competing teams were Seaton; Dorchester; Bridport; Ottery St Mary and Axminster.

The game was won by Seaton with a Lyme team of L Broom, C Barber, C Pomeroy & M Bartlett/K Laverty sharing the honours.

The meal was prepared by our catering officer, Pauline Knight, ably assisted by her band of helpers.

As is the custom, the ladies were waited upon by some of the male members who also completed the job by washing-up!

Colfox in national final

THE Sir John Colfox Academy U13 cricket team have made it through to the national finals of the 'Chance to Compete' 8-a-side state school cricket competition for the first time in their history. The final will take place at Edgbaston Cricket Ground in September.

As Dorset County Champions they competed against other winning schools from Berkshire, Cornwall, Gloucestershire, Hampshire and Wiltshire in the regional finals at Bristol, and were drawn against Hampshire champions St Edmunds, and Gillotts School from Berkshire in their round-robin group.

A good bowling display restricted Gillotts to 50 runs off of their seven overs in the first game. Knowing a good start in reply was important, openers Ethan Robertson and Euan Pollock started quickly.

With retirements forced for batsman after 20 runs, Pollock retired after scoring 23. However with Colfox in a strong position, sensible batting from the remainder of the team saw them move safely to their first win.

A win against St Edmunds would guarantee them a place in the final, but the Hampshire side batting first made a fine start but tight bowling from Jacob Maltby who conceded only two runs from his over helped keep the score down to 51.

Confident that the runs could be chased down, things did not go to plan with Ethan Robertson dismissed first ball and Maltby out fourth ball.

However thanks to some high quality batting from Pollock (21 retired) and Reuben Joliffe (22 retired) the total was reached with one over to spare.

The final against Marling School from Stroud, Gloucestershire saw The Sir John Colfox Academy batting second after losing the toss. Marling had won their group easily, putting in some dominant performances and scoring 95 runs in the previous game, but Colfox got off to the perfect start.

The Marling opener played Robertson's first ball straight back to him and then carelessly-wandered out of his crease - instinctively, Robertson picked the ball up and threw the wicket down with the batsman well out of his ground. This set the tone for the rest of the innings where wickets fell at regular intervals.

Will Moss, bowling the final, over took three wickets and a run out to help restrict the total to a very respectable and gettable 61 runs.

Colfox's innings didn't start well either with Robertson falling quickly to a dubious LBW decision and Joliffe out soon after, leaving Pollock to once again anchor the innings.

For the third game in a row he retired after making 20 runs, but by this time he had given Colfox a solid base to build on.

Jacob Jobson came in and smashed a wonderful 20 runs, ably supported by Ollie Bareham, and it was fitting that Jobson hit the four that both won the game and reach his retirement score at the same time.

The team were ecstatic at the result, but commendably held their celebrations in to go straight over to the losing side and shake all their hands before finally being presented with the trophy for being the South West champions.

Colfox are crowned beach soccer kings

THE Sir John Colfox Academy have been crowned Dorset Schools Beach Soccer champions following a recent tournament held on Weymouth beach.

The Bridport team defeated Blandford, Gillingham, Poole High and Purbeck in their round-robin group, with Euan Pollock grabbing most of the goals.

They met the other group winner Shaftesbury in the final where, in a very close, game two goals from Pollock and one from Finley Cauldwell was enough to see them take the title 3-1.

LYME Regis FC's efforts both on and off the field have been recognised by the Dorset County FA.

The Seasiders, along with Dorset Premier League outfit Sturminster Newton United have been given the honour of participating in a match at the County's football headquarters at Hamworthy to mark the opening of the new ATP pitch.

The match is scheduled for Friday, September 30th (7.30pm ko) and there is likely to be a coach leaving from the Davey Fort for players and spectators.

The match will be also played as the Mark Frowde Memorial Match and each player will receive an award, there will be an official guest to meet the players.

Frowde was a founder member of Weymouth FC and held the offices of Dorset FA secretary, treasurer and chairman. In addition he was linesman at the 1907 FA cup final when Sheffield Wednesday beat Everton 2-1 before a crowd of 84,000 played at the old Crystal Palace stadium.

LRFC Secretary Rob Thom said: "I received a phone call from Sue Hough (Chief Executive of Dorset FA) inviting us to play in the official opening of the new pitch at the County Ground."

"We have been chosen as recognition of our successes at County Cup level, our continued support to Dorset FA, our good disciplinary record and the way our club is run on and off the pitch.

"This is a massive privilege to be invited to play on such a stage and I hope players, officials and supporters will look forward to representing our amazing club on the date. It will be a night to remember and another memorable part of our club's rich history."

The Seasiders begin life up in the Devon & Exeter League Division One with a tough-looking away fixture at Sidmouth Town Reserves on Bank Holiday Monday, August 29th (3pm).

The Reserves, now up in the D&E Division Six are at home against Tivvy Park Rangers on Saturday, August 27th (3pm).

Lyme Regis Reserves are due to welcome Combe Reserves for a friendly on Friday night at the Davey Fort (6.45pm ko).

Tomorrow (Thursday) the first team were due to visit Ilminster Town.

Meanwhile, the Seasiders are set to wind the clock back to 1966 with a showing of the World Cup Final at the Davey Fort on Saturday immediately after the first team's friendly against Winchester.

DORCHESTER (6) 151 ALL OUT

LOST TO SHERBORNE (20) 271-8 BY 120 RUNS

DORCHESTER'S title hopes were all-but ended with this defeat by defending champions Sherborne.

With several players missing, the county town found themselves facing an uphill task after the visitors on winning the toss elected to bat and racked up 271-8 in their 50 overs.

Opener Luke Hancock (58) put the bowling to the test as he scored a half-century, whilst top scorer K Boucher (79) together with middle support from James Elliot-Square (32) and N Harris (34no) set a bid target.

Standin captain James Dunham (3-53) and 2nd XI captain Mike Peak (2-36) were the pick of the Dorchester bowling attack.

Only opener Dan Belt (30) and top scorer Dan Morris (49) really got going as Dorchester failed dismally to worry the visitors and were dismissed for just 151 all out.

SWANAGE (20) 187-5 BEAT

MARTINSTOWN (5) 185 ALL OUT BY 5 WICKETS

MARTINSTOWN failed to capitalise on a good start to fall to their first defeat after three consecutive wins.

In-form skipper Ed Nichols (40) produced another solid performance and he and Lee House (36) put on 70 for the first wicket.

However, at 110-1 and the dismissal of Dave Herbert (25), things went downhill, with only Ryan Chase (16) getting into double figures as Ian Booth (2-23), Will Selfe (3-43) and Dan Salmon (3-29) took control to bowl out Martinstown for just 185.

Nichols said: "I'm disappointed we didn't go on to get a bigger score. All three of us at the top of the order all felt we should have done better, particularly as we were lacking a bit of depth in the middle order.

"I thought Ian Booth bowled very well in the middle before their returning seamers got amongst the lower order.

"Although 185 wasn't a bad score, at 110-1 I thought we had enough overs left to have topped 200."

With a smallish target, opener Salmon (48) went for his shots and although Matt Camp (2-34) and James Pickering (2-40) both picked up braces, Swanage had enough batting to see them home comfortably with 15 overs to spare.

◆ WICKETS: Simon Browne took 5-20

COUNTY DIVISION 1

WEYMOUTH (20) 137-4 BEAT WIMBORNE &amp; COLEHILL 2NDS (4) 136 ALL OUT BY 6 WICKETS

WEYMOUTH skipper Simon Browne was delighted to have led his side to their first home win at Redlands in almost two years when they comprehensively beat Wimborne &amp; Colehill 2nds by six wickets on Saturday.

Browne led from the front as he took 5-20 to bowl out the opposition for just 136. Then Paul Payne who has been in cracking form for the Seasiders, but sadly playing his last game of the season, went out with a bang, scoring 42 as he took his side to the brink of victory.

Browne said: "It's nice to break the duck in what was a good performance all round. I wanted to bat first but once again lost the toss, and although we made a slow start once we broke through we went through them fairly easily."

After Dan Hutchens broke the opening stand following a good catch from Browne, things began to open up. Browne coming on at first change was in great form, his "Fifer" coming at the cost of just 20 runs in nine overs.

With Harry Mitchell (2-11), Joe Ames (1-25) and Graham Puckett chipping in with good contributions, the visitors were dismissed for just 136 on what Browne thought was a pretty decent wicket.

Inspired by their bowlers, Weymouth applied themselves with the bat, and Dean Janaway (11) and Michael Pearce (15) gave them a solid start.

Payne took command from then on, with seven fours and a six, looked to have won it. But he went for one big hit too many and perished, leaving Neil Walton and Dom Webb to see them safely to a third consecutive victory, with plenty of overs to spare.

"Paul anchored our reply and almost got us over the line, but it was a good overall performance. The second half of the season is proving more fruitful than the first!"

County Division 2

CATTISTOCK (18) 196-1 BEAT

ASHMORE (4) 192-7 BY 9 WICKETS

CATTISTOCK completed their sixth consecutive victory to continue to head the division, but bottom side Ashmore showed once again that they are improving as the season progresses.

The visitors won the toss and elected to bat, and despite some very tight bowling from Bradley Damen (1-23 from nine) their openers gave them a solid start before first change Liam Toohill bowled Julian Watson (25) with 48 on the board.

Lee Russell joined Andy Taylor and although the going was slow against more economic bowling from Billy Walbridge (0-12 off six) they took the score to 125 before Ollie Lee had Taylor (40) caught in the 33rd over.

The returning Toohill (3-31 from nine) then dismissed Russell (56) and Andy Maidment with successive balls, as Ashmore posted a respectable 195-7 off their 45 overs.

In reply Jon Legg and Walbridge looked comfortable before Legg (41) was well caught behind by Taylor with 62 on the board.

From them on Walbridge who carried his bat for 75 (9x4, 1x6) and Joe Baggs with an unbeaten 69 (10x4) sent the visitors to all parts of the field as they passed their target with more than 11 overs to spare.

BRANKSOME (18) 241-7 BEAT

PORTLAND RT (8) 209-7 BY 32 RUNS

DESPITE good batting displays from Callan Laws (54) and captain Matt Randell (69), Portland couldn't reach their target at Branksome and went down by 32 runs.

Asked to field first, Triangle had some early success with Jon Cameron (2-41) and Gary Randell (1-44) among the wickets.

But solid performances from Alex Warren (37), James Purnell (64) and Jackson Sheppard (54no) saw the hosts post a target of 241-7 despite a brace each for Matt Randell (2-40) and Simon Barrett (2-44).

Elliott Sawyer (2), Dave Adkins (8) and Joe Adkins (12) were early casualties for Triangle, but Laws and Matt Randell dug in and started to turn the game around but the dismissal of Chris Theakstone, run out by Purnell, saw the end of their chase.

County Division 3

POOLE TOWN 3RD (6) 110 ALL OUT

LOST TO BEAMINSTER (19) 195 ALL OUT BY 85 RUNS

BEAMINSTER gained their first away victory of the season with ease against bottom side Poole Town 3rds at Whitecliff Rec thanks to Ali Crawford's excellent innings of 79.

The victory sees the west Dorset club move into a comfortable mid-table position - and a couple more wins could yet see them in a top three spot.

After losing the toss and then both openers in the first four overs, Beaminster's innings was rescued by Crawford (14x4, 1x6) and skipper Ross Baker. They shared an entertaining 89 run partnership including a 20 boundaries and a huge six by Crawford over long on.

The partnership was broken when despite an inside edge, Baker was adjudged lbw as Poole fought back. Four quick wickets including Crawford's then followed as Beaminster's middle order wobbled.

However, the promoted Nick Holley (30) batted sensibly with the young tail and ensured Beaminster set a challenging total on a bouncy and sometimes unpredictable surface, and were delighted to close on 195 all out when the final wicket was taken in the 45th over.

Poole's reply started positively as the home side's top order played their shots. Although runs flowed from the bat, wickets also tumbled as Crawford took 2-23 and Nick Holley 1-20 reduced them to 35-3.

However after changing ends Ross Baker returned to the attack and found steep bounce and carry to unsettle the Poole Town batsman.

He swung the game the visitors' way taking 4-32 including R Hellawell (40) who was the only batsman to show any real resistance, leaving debutant William Moss to take the final wicket with his fifth ball in the 25th over as Beaminster won comfortably.

KINGSTON LACY (20) BEAT
DORCHESTER 2ND (-20) SCRATCHED

County Division 4

HAMWORTHY REC 2ND (20) 124-1

BEAT ABBOTSBOURY (2) 120 ALL OUT BY 9 WICKETS

ABBOTSBOURY'S promotion ambitions suffered a further blow as fellow contenders Hamworthy bolstered by a strengthened side with their first team not in action, proved too strong.

After winning the toss Swans' skipper Simon Pengelly, continuing his recent good form, and fellow opening batsman Simon Allen made a promising start as a fast outfield ensured maximum return for their shots, before Allen (10) was caught with 30 on the board.

This became 50-3 as Robin Potter (3) and Frank Pittman (0) soon returned to the pavilion. However, Chas Dueroth joined Pengelly at the crease and played some typically belliger shots in a quickfire 27 but a promising partnership was cut short when he was bowled.

Worse was to follow for Abbotsbury as Pengelly (43) was contentiously caught behind and Steve Budd and Nick Kneebone both departed without troubling the scorers, but some lower order resistance from Aaron Oliver (14) and Ashley Harrow (11) pushed the score past the hundred mark, Defending a modest total of 120, the early breakthrough the Swans needed was provided by the experienced spinner Krish Subramanian (1-29).

But, that was as good as it got for the away side as despite some tidy bowling from the Abbotsbury attack, no one was able to stifle Hamworthy batsmen Sam Stroud (58no) and Jack Hector (59no) as they regularly pierced the infield.

Stroud was given a reprieve when he was dropped in the slips off the bowling of Dueroth (0-25) but both players went on to record unbeaten half centuries as Hamworthy cantered to victory with 19 overs to spare and strengthen their grip on second place.

Next up for the Swans is a tough challenge against unbeaten league leaders Charlton Down.

DORSET INDIAN TIGERS (8) 168 ALL OUT

LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN (20) 210-9 BY 42 RUNS

CHARLTON Down's impressive unbeaten run was severely tested by an excellent and very keen Dorset Indian team, but ran out eventual winners by 42 runs thanks to some excellent batting by James Pretty and Kim Park and four wickets from Javed Gill.

Charlton Down won the toss and batted on the small Charborough Road ground, and although they only started with seven fielders, it made no difference as Dorset Indian's opening bowlers Vinod (2-30) and Richard (0-10) were in excellent form with Vinod bowling Jack Eveleigh off the first ball of the match.

Jae Miller and Roger Frapwell batted well to survive on a very bouncy wicket and accurate bowling. Richard was particularly miserly conceding only ten runs from his eight overs and so unlucky not to pick up any wickets.

A change of bowling saw talented all round Shafiq bowl Frapwell (17) and when captain Sharma bowled Miller (14) the visitors were 37-3 off 13 overs.

At this point Charlton Down decided to take the game to the opposition and a quick partnership of 57 in seven overs between Sam Roles (24) and Park increased the scoreboard activity until a change in bowling saw Ayaz take two quick wickets.

But Park (47) and Pretty (69no) dug deep and produced a match winning partnership pushing the score to 154 before Park was run out. Good support from Rob Deadman, Marc Spurway and Pete Tucker hepled the stylish and rampant Pretty, to add 56 runs to the Charlton Down total.

Pretty's innings made the difference at a very important part of the match, being particularly brutal to anything short, and his driving through the covers was exquisite and he remained unbeaten on 69 (14x4) from 68 balls.

Tigers made it obvious that they were not going to leave scoring the runs to the last over with 24 runs coming from the first four overs.

Jae Miller struck first having Richard (19) leg before, whilst Rich Fagence (2-49) saw the hosts 41-3. Khan (27) the explosive hitting of Shafiq (59) used the short straight boundaries effectively, and looked to be taking the game away from Charlton Down with the score on 105-3 after only 16 overs.

However an inspired change of bowling from captain Pete Tucker saw Javed Gill (4-35) rip out the Dorset Indians middle order taking four wickets in ten balls.

Tucker (3-14) then introduced himself into the attack and he bowled the dangerous Shafiq for a hard hitting 59 and then mopped up the tail to ensure a 42 run victory with nearly 10 overs remaining.

The win extended their unbeaten run to an impressive 12 matches, and they now only need 44 points from five games to ensure promotion.

BEAT WITCHAMPTON (9) 172-7 BY 39 RUNS

MARTINSTOWN 2nds made it three wins on the bounce and now hold a fairly secure midtable position.

Captain Matt Rimmer led from the front with a splendid 79 and following an early loss of wickets, was ably aided by good supporting performances from Stuart Dawson, Chris Monteith and some lusty blows from Alex Pipe to record a total of 211 all out.

The Witchampton reply hinged around their captain Ricky Hempstead who scored 84 and kept taking the game to Martinstown despite some economic bowling from Pike, 14-year-old Jamie Stewart and Rimmer.

◆ CAPTAIN'S KNOCK: Matt Rimmer

However defending well in the field the hosts restricted the visitors to 172-7 to move above them in the league.

Janie raises the flag again

INSTEAD of the usual men's competition, Sunday brought the ANNUAL MIXED OPEN, a Greensome format and 28 pairs took part.

The weather was good for golf, not too hot and sunny but warm and pleasant till mid afternoon when there was a little rain.

There were four prizes offered and all the winners carded 36 points so places were decided on count-back.

Emerging as the winners were Toshiko & John Ricketts with runners-up the two vice captains this year Janie Dowling & Phil Winton.

In third place, the only outside winners, were Terri Kennard & Neil Capener from Wells. Margaret & Mike Thompson were fourth. The nearest the pin winners were Viv Gill & Larry Elliot.

In Wednesday's MIDWEEK STABLEFORD Mannie Wellman (25) took first place with a six-point cushion carding a fine 42 points. Second with 36 was Terry Cleal (21) and in third was Patrick Harper (9) scoring 35.

On Saturday Bridport won 3½-1½ in a Hardy B home match against DUDSBURY.

Veterans Section

THE Thursday competition for the veterans was a three-man team Stableford – best two scores to count, all scores on par threes.

Twenty teams took part on a steamy morning. Scoring was very close with the top nine teams were all in the 80s.

The team of Colin Clark (25), Trevor Foster (26) & Malcolm Noble (17) took first place after count-back scoring 88 points. Howard Bonfield (16), Keith Peraux (23) & Eric Hall (28) took the runner-up spot with the same score.

In third place were Peter Mowat (16), Richard Thompson (20) & Tony Williams (28) with 87.

Bridport lost an away match versus CAN-

FORD SCHOOL 4-2.

Ladies Section by Di Neal

THE Tuesday Ladies played in the BETTY RINK FLAG Competition where the person who places the flag furthest being the winner.

It has been known for the flag to go up the 1st again, but not this year and it was placed by 17th hole by Janie Dowling who also won it last year - a triple success next year maybe?

BRIDPORT rugby club has started its pre-season training for the forthcoming season in the Dorset & Wilts League Two South under the guidance of their new coach Wes Lewis.

Players started formal training this week in preparation for the start of their league program in September and pre-season friendlies.

Under new player/coach

Wes Lewis, who brings his experience of working at Cardiff Blues and London Irish, the club are hoping for a successful season in Dorset & Wilts League Two South.

Bridport FC pre-season news

WITH STUART BROOM

Fricker pleased with players' character

THE biggest single thing Bridport boss Adam Fricker learned from his side's latest pre-season friendlies was the character of his players, which convinced him he has the right players at the club to succeed.

Having produced their best performance of pre-season in the 1-1 draw at TIVERTON TOWN RESERVES midweek, his charges showed that, despite tough opposition, in PLIMOUTH PARKWAY where the 3-0 defeat flattened the SW Peninsula side, his team never gave up and stuck to their task.

He said: "I think from a footballing perspective the Tiverton game was our best performance so far. We adapted the shape a little and the lads responded well which is promising looking forward to the season because that is something we are going to have to do now and again. It was really a good workout, a great performance and a decent result."

Reflecting on Saturday's game he said: "We knew Parkway would be the toughest game we would have this pre-season; they are a very good team, almost Southern League standard, but I thought the scoreline flattered them slightly as they scored with virtually the last kick as we were pushing to get back in the game

breakaway goal

"I think the biggest thing we learned was the character of the lads. We conceded early on when they caught us on the hop and by the time we had settled down and sorted a couple of things at half-time, we were looking really strong in the second half."

"Unfortunately they caught us on the break again, but the lads didn't back down or slack off. They stuck with it and kept doing what we asked, that was a major plus and showed us that they are the sort of players we want on board."

With only Mark Salter and Tom Blair up front the Bees had to adapt slightly due to their lack of attacking options. Without Luke Woodland, and with Ed Butcher and Braeden Symes only playing 45 minutes to blow the cobwebs away having just returned from holiday, they were unable to play with width, particularly as Matt Condliffe who gives the team a lot of options going forward was also missing.

Fricker commented: "Defensively we looked strong but needed that bit of pace going forward down the line."

The Bees were scheduled to entertain ILMINSTER TOWN last night (Tuesday) giving Fricker different problems.

"On paper we should beat them, so the lads need to make sure they don't think it is going to be a walkover and need to approach it with the right attitude."

"I think throughout the season winning against the teams at the bottom are as important as those at the top."

Indoor Bowls

Top trio march on

THERE was no change at the top of the Bridport & West Dorset Indoor Bowls Club Evening League following the latest round of matches with the three leaders all winning.

Pugilists remain top after Pete Cowburn, Eric White & Keith Jenkins condemned the pointless Wrestlers to a 17-4 defeat.

Viv Gill, Anne Parkins & Tony Sharrow's Fencers stayed in touch with a 17-7 win over Archers while Erica Sarson, Barry Mapson & Hugh Rees' Divers stay third following a 15-10 victory over Gymnasts.

Mel Hargett, Barbara Jenkins & David Drake's Decathletes trailed the Swimmers 6-1 before an amazing scoring burst of 5, 1, 2, 7, 2 swept them to a 19-9 win.

The Equestrians of Val and Reg Dodd & Phil Hedges felled the Hurdlers 13-9, whilst Sharon and Les Heath & Stephen Grier's Rowers finished with a one count to draw 12-12 with the Cyclists of Gordon Lee, Peter Sandall & Andy Marsh.

The Gunners won the top-of-the-table clash against the Spurs in the Morning League 17-10 to open up a two-point lead.

Gunners' pocket dynamo Nova Varney was the star at two, backed up by Brian Baker and Martin Wilton.

Tony Bartlett, John Boxall & Bernard Winton's Potters silenced the Canaries 17-6, but they stay second, a point above Spurs.

A sticky end saw the Toffees drop counts of 2, 5, 4 to lose 14-10 to Mike Parsons, Barbara Jenkins & Chris Everest's Grovers.

Meanwhile, Peter Hunt, Reg Dodd & Tony Harrison's Red Devils drew 8-8 with the Magpies of Brian Savery, Sarson & Mapson.

Maureen Hicks, Chris Thorner & Hedges' Pensioners beat Foxes 12-7 and Brian Cattell, Roger Cowmeadow & John Davies' Cherries overcame Hammers 14-9.
